

ADVERTISING

As a storyboard artist, I have worked extensively in advertising, with a particular focus on toy and children's brands. My work combines clear visual storytelling, dynamic staging and an immediate sense of rhythm, translating scripts and creative concepts into engaging sequences. Over the years, I have collaborated on campaigns for major international brands including Ravensburger, Fisher-Price, Lelli Kelly and others, adapting my approach to different products, audiences and visual languages.

go check the video

go check the video

